

Job Title: Implementation Engineer

Department: Implementation

Location: Chennai

Summary:

Yalamanchili is seeking to hire a skilled person who should will be accountable for the end to end implementation of the solution for Clients. Should be responsible for the implementation plan and /or coordinate with UAT testing, production implementation & post implementation.

Job responsibilities:

- Design all job requirements and specifications and manage all communication with implementation analysts.
- Resolve all issues and develop all programs according to client requirements.
- Perform various tests on process with help of test cases and prepare documents for same.
- Coordinate with manager to resolve all issues within required timeframe and inform management of any delays.
- Collaborate with development team to design new programs for all client implementation activities.
- Manage all communication with department to resolve all issues and assist implementation analyst to manage all production data.

Required Skills:

- Any UG/ PG graduate with Computer science background is preferred.
- 0-2 years of Experience can be considered.
- Good in communication & attitude.
- Self-motivated smart worker.
- Good self - learning skills.